

Circular walk from Pewsey Wharf

A beautiful Sunday morning and five set off to enjoy fabulous views over Wiltshire. Starting and finishing with a shady walk along the Kennet & Avon canal, the walk took us up to Oare Hill via the White Horse Trail. Taking frequent opportunities to look back and enjoy the distant views from the steep slope, we soon reached the summit. The path combined with the Mid Wilts Way to follow the ridge past Hush Hill to Gopher Wood. We stopped for lunch with a view and inquisitive sheep for company. Mostly following field paths, crossing meadows with sheep for company and walking through short stretches of woodland. We finished with a welcome drink at the Waterfront Bar at Pewsey Wharf after returning along the towpath. A really great walk and day out.
