June Walks

Five members headed to Wiltshire on a warm Sunday. They began by walking along the shady Kennet & Avon Canal then up Oare Hill via the White Horse Trial. There were glorious views along the ridge and they had a picnic lunch with sheep for company. After enjoying lush meadows and woodlands there was a stop for a drink at the Waterfront Bar in Pewsey, then back to the canal for the last part of a great day's walk.

We had two walks on lovely summer evenings – 2.5 miles through woodland paths at Ecchinswell and, for the more ambitious members, a nine mile route from Oakley to North Waltham via Steventon with supper at The Fox half-way through.

Oakley Ramblers Welcome new walkers! Please see our Facebook page and website.
